Minutes of a Special Meeting of The Sole Remaining Directors of Quest Oil Corporation

On Tuesday, April 4, 2006, there was held a Special Meeting of the Sole Remaining Director of Quest Oil Corporation at 11200 Westheimer Avenue, Houston, Texas commencing at 1:30 P.M. Attending was William H. (Bill) Stinson.

William H. (Bill) Stinson, the sole remaining director of Quest Oil reported that the company had received no responses to its latest inquiries made to former directors, Joseph F. Wallen, James Irwin, Douglas Blackman and James Douglas Brown regarding their intention to resume service to the company. Mr. Stinson stated that Mark Baum, the company prior counsel, had previously stated that Joseph F. Wallen, James Irwin, Douglas Blackman and James Douglas Brown had formally resigned, however; Mr. Baum failed to forward the resignations to this company. Further, Mr. Stinson believes that Mr. Brown remains on an extended trip outside the USA. Finally, an emergency exists because the company is under legal attack from its former attorney, Mark Baum, who is believed to be, directly or indirectly a large share holder. Mr. Baum has threatened Hibernia Bank with legal action resulting in a hold on the company bank account. In consideration of these circumstances, the sole remaining director, Mr. Stinson, took the following actions:

Be It Resolved that each of the former directors Joseph F. Wallen, James Irwin, Douglas Blackman and James Douglas Brown, if any has not finally and formally resigned, is suspended from the post of Director, effective as of Friday, March 31, 2006, at 5:00 P.M. CST., and,

Be It Resolved that each of the following individuals, Terry Roberts and Reginald Williams are appointed to the position of director of Quest Oil Corporation to serve for a period of one year or until his successor be nominated and elected.

There being no further business, the Special Meeting was adjourned.
